DFA Evaluation Strategies

Differential Fault Analysis (DFA) is a fault injection analysis technique which compares fault encryptions with correct encryptions and gains knowledge from the differences.

In this work, several evaluation strategies should be compared.

The information about the work is deliberately kept short; for detailed information, I am personally available at any time.

Prerequisites

- Python
- Basic Knowledge Fault Injection Analysis

Advisors

Michael Gruber