Bachelor's Thesis

Two applications of Identification

Application 1: Given a stream of data packets consisting of a key and some additional data. Packets, that previously have occurred in the stream and have not changed, shall be filtered out.

Application 2: Find a zero of a stochastically given function.

Prerequisites

Basics of Information Theory

Knowledge of programming

Advisors

Christian Deppe