

Ingenieurspraxis

Optimized Transform Coding for Physical Unclonable Functions

The student will work on the state-of-the-state PUF design to generate secret keys from uncontrollable manufacturing variations of ring oscillators. Optimal transforms according to a joint security and reliability metric will be designed and implemented.

Advisors

Onur Günlü